Madrid, October 2, N. S.

THE Queen Widow is intirely recovered of her late Indiſpoſition of the Small Pox, with which her Majeſty is not much marked in the Face. His Catholick Majeſty has been pleaſed to declare, that the Prohibition of the Grandees and others, who were at the Buen-Retiro, from appearing at his Majeſty's Court, ſhall now ceaſe; yet notwithſtanding, thoſe who go to St. Ildefonſo, muſt beforehand obtain Permiſſion of his Majeſty. Don Juan Baptiſta Orendayn, Secretary of State to his late Majeſty King Lewis, went Yeſterday to St. Ildefonſo: It is not as yet certain whether he is to be employed in the preſent Miniſtry, or whether he will be nominated Secretary to the Queen Widow, as is reported. His Excellency Mr. Stanhope, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſadour at this Court, is preparing to go in a Day or two to St. Ildefonſo, from which he has been hitherto prevented, by reaſon of his having been frequently at the Buen-Retiro during the Illneſs of the late King Lewis. His Catholick Majeſty has forbid five Valets de Chambre of the late King to appear at Court, for having been great Encouragers of the violent Exerciſe which his late Majeſty took; the Phyſicians having declared that the Exceſs of that Exerciſe ſo over-heated his Blood, that it rendered his Majeſty's Indiſpoſition incurable. The Marqueſs de Grimaldo is perfectly recovered of his late intermitting Fever: He begun on the 30th paſt to wait on his Catholick Majeſty, and to diſpatch Affairs.

Turin, Oct. 7, N.S. Yeſterday the Regiment of Piedmont being encamped at Colegno, performed their Exerciſe, as well on Horſeback as on Foot, in Preſence of his Royal Highneſs the Prince, who gave the Officers a very magnificent Dinner, all the Field Officers having the Honour of being admitted to his Table, and there were other Tables apart for the Subalterns. This Morning the Regiment decamped and are now on the March towards their Quarters.

Gottenbourg, Sept. 24, O S. Stephen Poyntz, Eſq; his Britannick Majeſty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the King of Sweden, arrived here the 21ſt Inſtant, on board the Britiſh Man of War the Port Mahon, Captain Morris Commander; and was received and entertained with all Honours due to his Character, by General Gyllencroek the Governour of this Place, accompanied by ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction. The 22d the Engliſh Factory here waited on him in a Body, to compliment him on his Arrival. Yeſterday he was entertained, with Count Sparre Senator and High Admiral, at Admiral Eurenſeld's Seat within two Miles of this Town. He will forthwith proceed by Land to Stockholm.

The Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Cuſtoms give Notice, That purſuant to the Directions of the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, they intend to expoſe to Sale by Auction, in the Long-Room in the Cuſtom-Houſe in Thames-ſtreet, on Wedneſday the 11th Day of November next, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, the Crown's Title and Intereſt in and to the Eſtates following, late of Richard Page, Eſq; lying and being in or near Harrow upon the Hill, in the County of Middleſex, being under Extent for a great Debt due
